

TAXATION

ABEA Lawyers practicing tax law have considerable experience in providing services in tax planning and tax advising to corporate clients and private investors. Below is the list of main services, which we provide:

- Analysis and prevention of negative risks arising while business activity

- Development of measures to protect the business assets of the company and individuals

- Optimization of the tax burden

- Consultations on salary calculation and payment to the foreigners and/or Ukrainian employees of international and/or Ukrainian companies.

- Consultations on income tax and social security payment

Providing advices to foreigners on structuring and optimization their taxation, as well as the avoidance of double taxation