

SPORTS LAW

Advising on sport-related matters

Advising clients, whose activity is connected with sport on various legal issues (corporate, commercial, employment, taxation, intellectual property, protection of information, family law, licensing, etc).

Representing athletes and sports organizations interests in a variety of disputes, including litigation, arbitration proceedings and mediation processes