

RECRUITING

ABEA specializes successfully in searching of top managers, middle managers, rare specialists, regional selection, as well as providing assistance in closing complex vacancies, provides the labor market analysis and salary surveys.

We are aimed to meet customer's needs and requirements. Using our own experience and the best international practices, we constantly improve our service level.

ABEA consultants consider candidates in terms of requirements, according to the business sphere specific and corporate culture of the client company, and know how to assess properly the effectiveness of the specialist based on these measurements.

We strive to become a reliable partner to our customers, by being professional, efficient, compliant with quality of service and all standards of business ethics.